Education

I graduated in 1976 from Downingtown Senior High School in Downingtown, Pennsylvania, and in 1978 from the National Legal Secretarial School in Hagerstown, Maryland.

Work History

In June of 1978, I began working as a notereader/court reporter in Washington, D.C. After passing the Registered Professional Reporter exam that November, I worked for six years as a freelancer in Baltimore, Maryland.

On February 1, 1984, I became an official court reporter for the Circuit Court of Baltimore City; and from May of 1986 until November of 1987, I held an officialship position at the United States District Court in Washington, D.C. Both placements involved reporting and transcribing criminal and civil proceedings.

Since November 1987, I have been pursuing freelance assignments, specializing in realtime/technical testimony.

Special Awards

Upon high school graduation, I received the Shorthand Award, the Women's Club of Downingtown Award, and the Uwchland Village League Technical Scholarship Award.

I earned an Associate of Arts Degree in Courtroom and Conference Reporting from the National Legal Secretarial School, and received the Shorthand Award and the Typing Award.

I am a Registered Merit Reporter, Certified Realtime Reporter, and a Certified Shorthand Reporter in Virginia.

General Information

I use Total Eclipse software for transcription. I am a notary in: VA, NY, and District of Columbia.
