

Joseph Jones C.V.

Private Investigator and Social Media Investigation Expert

Bosco Legal Services, Inc.

California Southern University

Greater Los Angeles Area

I have literally worked every position in our company starting at the very bottom sweeping the parking lots and taking out the trash. Having this unique opportunity has given me perspective and experience which has put me in a position to help our company grow.

Although our company offers many different services, my passion is in investigations. In the last several years our Investigations division has seen strong growth, which has been fueled by our unique expertise in Social Media Investigations. As the use of social media grown exponentially in our society, so has the number of individual posting information that they shouldn't. When they do, we're there to capture, preserve in a defensible manner and use it as evidence.
