Head of PI agency and working private investigator since the early 90s. In an area as small as Sussex County, your reputation is built squarely on your work product. My agency has built a solid business on word of mouth as the only form of advertising.

From corporate to criminal / civil investigations, and interviews - we do it all. Our local business focuses on court preparation, surveillance and process service in rural Sussex County and Kent County areas. National work includes criminal pre-employment searches as well as information / document retrieval and research at Delaware's Secretary of State, Chancery Courts and County Courts.

We provide background screening and consulting services for national broker companies as well as Delaware corporations and non-profits. My agency does everything from quick court searches to full background screens and corporate investigations.

My team "puts out out fires" for local corporations and attorneys preparing for court; it doesn't matter what they need or how quickly they need it done. Our clients have learned they can call us and then not worry about a task - they know once it is assigned to us, we will take care of it reliably and on time, every time. We are the "go-to guys" for Delaware corporations and law firms.

Very busy - but will discuss work in lower Delaware in Kent or Sussex counties.

Specialties:

Getting jobs done within deadline.

Surveillance for pending court cases - mainly civil, custody, alimony issues.

Interviews for criminal / civil cases / HR investigations

Delaware 20 year criminal background searches turned around within 24 hours reliably & consistently.

Process service in rural Kent and Sussex Counties / specializing in rush and hard-to-serve docs. Even if they know it's coming, they are not looking for any of us so they open the door and it's done!
