Background:

Dr. Franco is a Venezuelan attorney at law.

Certified by the Supreme Court of Florida as Count, family, Circuit Civil Mediator, Arbitrator and Primary trainer of County Mediation.

My experience as a negotiator and as conflict resolution specialist as well as my knowledge and understanding of the complex cultural diversity issues that impact negotiation and closure of the dispute, has proven to be very good tools when helping the parties to achieve a negotiated settlement.

I am a professional in dispute resolution, with over 12 years of experience. I practice mediation in Florida as well as in Latin America, assisting parties in conflict, pre-trial, or already involved in litigation. My areas of mediation expertise include national and workplace mediation, international commercial, matters.

Foreclosure mediation (trained at South Florida University), as well as matters related to family mediation and Cross Borders Child Abduction (Hague and non-Hague convention) are also areas of expertise.

His mediation practice is oriented toward conflict resolution in cases where cultural diversity impacts resolution. He commutes to Latin-American countries in his capacity as trainer in Managerial Mediation, Cultural Diversity and Alternative Dispute Resolution specialist.

Current member of the Mediation Qualification Board and the Florida Supreme Court Committee on ADR Rules and Policy.

Specialties: Mediation and conciliation in Florida and in Latin America, assisting parties in conflict pre-trial, or litigation seeking to solve disputes in areas: commercial, insurance, franchising, community, banking and personal injury matters. Family mediation and Cross Borders Child Abduction (Hague and non Hague convention) is another area of expertise.

He is zealously dedicated to conflict resolution where cultural diversity plays an important role in obtaining a mutual benefit solution.
