

K.A. Day C.V. Mediator – Jacksonville, Florida

Mediator

State of Florida Division of Administrative Hearings

Harvard Law School Program of Instruction for Lawyers

Jacksonville, Florida

Florida mediator presently employed by the State of Florida Division of Administrative Hearings, Office of the Judges of Compensation Claims, in the Jacksonville District. Has provided mediation services, written and presented on mediation and mediation ethics, and provided pro bono mediation services for more than twenty years. Before becoming a full time mediator, successfully represented individuals in cases brought before State and Federal courts including the United States Supreme Court.

Experience

-

State Mediator-OJCC

Company Name State of Florida Division of Administrative Hearings

Dates Employed Sep 2002 – Present

Employment Duration 15 yrs 2 mos

Location Jacksonville, Florida

-

Asistant Public Defender

Company Name Ninth Judicial Circuit Court of Florida

Dates Employed Jun 1993 – Sep 2002

Employment Duration 9 yrs 4 mos

Location Orlando, Florida

Education

•

Harvard Law School Program of Instruction for Lawyers

Degree Name Negotiation Training

Dates attended or expected graduation 2000 – 2000

Activities and Societies: Negotiation lectures, exercises, and role plays with founding faculty and staff at the Program on Negotiation.

•

Cornell University

Degree Name Bachelor of Arts (BA)

Dates attended or expected graduation 1976 – 1980

Activities and Societies: Books and coffee at the Green Dragon and Temple of Zeus, rock and ice climbing in upstate New York, sport parachuting at Seneca Falls, DKE.