Guiding the best business decisions. I understand the delicate balance between providing an environment for growth and managing risk. Prior to becoming an attorney, my background included operating businesses and computer programming. This allows me to offer legal advice with practical experience to businesses of all sizes, as well as business owners, families, and individuals.

I am relied on by my clients as outside general counsel. I provide advice to existing businesses and start-ups regarding legal issues, such as contract preparation, risk management, covenants, and other day-to-day matters.

An experienced and practical litigator. Lawsuits are a disruption to my clients. I help minimize or avoid these disruptions, and determine the best available options to manage the disputes in a manner consistent with my clients' goals. I consistently and aggressively represent my clients' interests both inside and outside of the courtroom.

I am a member of the State Bars of PA and GA. I am admitted to practice all state courts in both states. I am also admitted to the U.S. Dist. Courts for the N. Dist. of GA, M. Dist. of GA, and W. Dist. of PA, as well as the U.S. Court of Appeals (11th Cir.) and the U.S. Supreme Court.

I have also appeared pro hac vice in the U.S. Dist. Court for the W. Dist. of MO, the Chancery Courts for Knox & Shelby Counties in TN, the Tennessee Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court of Tennessee.

Arbitrator & Mediator. I provide mediation services through Miles Mediation, and am a registered arbitrator and general civil mediator with the GA Supreme Court Commission on Dispute Resolution. My background in business and litigation allows me to effectively assist others resolve disputes either through mediation or arbitration.

I previously hosted Planning Successfully on the Pro Business Channel, where we discussed topics of interest relating to start-up businesses, existing businesses, business owners, and business executives.
