Sarasota, Florida Area

My law practice focused exclusively on areas of employment law, HR consulting and various employment issues and for more than 25 years. I no longer actively practice law since relocating to Florida and focus on consulting, arbitration and mediation of workplace disputes. I work with businesses, organizations and non-profits looking to build their HR brand by managing and minimizing their legal exposure in the areas of hiring, on-boarding, retention, termination and HR implementation. My aim is to provide solutions for effective legal compliance and conflict management in the workplace that eliminate wasteful and costly litigation by implementing ways to reduce destructive conflict while promoting productivity and innovation.
