Make Your Divorce As Painless and Friendly As Possible.

We can help you ease your heartache and stress, conserve your resources, protect your children, and move forward towards a new start.

In a divorce, if the Husband and Wife can agree on all issues, it is called a uncontested divorce. At A Stress-Free Divorce, we can prepare all of the documents that you need to file for a court to grant a divorce. If you are considering a divorce without an attorney, seriously consider having all of your court filings prepared by an experienced divorce attorney.

If the couple cannot agree on all issues, there is a method where an impartial trained person is available before anyone files a court action.

“Mediation is available before anyone files a court action for divorce.”

The mediation process is confidential and informal. You maintain control over the process, and you – not a judge! – Decide what is best for your family. A trained mediator assists both parties in resolving their disputes, allowing them to reach their agreements. The Mediator will present practical, creative solutions for each couple’s specific needs.

“You – not a judge! –should decide the outcome.”

When parties reach an agreement, the Mediator will prepare all of the documents that are necessary for the court to grant your divorce.
