Miami, Florida

Investigation & Security Expert - Since 1960

Edward L Du Bois, III, a third-generation specialist in the field of private investigation and security, is President of Investigators, Inc. - the oldest licensed, family-owned & operated investigative agency in the United States.

Du Bois, III began his investigative career in 1960 when he joined Investigators, Inc. and became the youngest licensed private investigator in Florida. He was trained by his father Ed Du Bois, Jr. (an FBI Agent, Attorney & Licensed Private Investigator) in all aspects of investigation and security. Upon the death of his father in 1968 he took over as President and continues in that capacity today.

In 1968, Du Bois became the National Football League's Security Representative in Miami and continues in that capacity as well, approaching his 45th season. He has conducted investigation and security consulting for other major league sports as well, including hockey, baseball, basketball and auto racing.

In the private sector of his business, Du Bois has represented a wide variety of clients including banks, insurance companies, law firms, public utilities, credit card companies, stock brokerage firms, airlines, developers, and hotels.

In the public sector, Du Bois' clients have included the Miami-Dade State Attorney's Office, Miami-Dade Police Department, Miami Police Department, Surfside Police Department, Bal Harbour Police Department, Golden Beach Police Department, Bay Harbour Islands Police Department, North Bay Village Police Department, Miami-Dade Schools Police, Hollywood Police Department, the Florida Board of Bar Examiners and the Florida Supreme Court. Du Bois was a special consultant to Monroe County (FL) Sheriff William A. Freeman, Jr. from 1975 -1989.

Since 1968, Ed Du Bois, III has run Investigators, Inc. with the highest of professional standards making it one of the most respected private investigative firms in the United States.
