

JEFFREY BLOOM, EJD C.V. Mediator – Westbury, New York

Professional Mediator/Conflict Resolution Specialist; Author; Radio Talk Show Host- "Ask The Mediator"-WLINY.com

Creative Resolutions Group

Creighton University

Westbury, New York

I am an experienced conflict resolution specialist, working with people and organizations to help them resolve issues, learn how to negotiate, and deal with conflict in the future. I am passionate about helping people achieve win-win results. I create an alternative to the litigation process while helping people save time, money, and, more importantly, their sanity. I attribute my ability to retain clients to four factors, all of which are important:

1. Family and Divorce: I have mediated more than 100 cases over the past five years. I add value to the process by having systems in place, along with affordable price packages, that make the process as painless as possible. This is not an easy process, but a very important one. Only the parties know what is best for the future with regard to their children, finances and assets. The parties have complete control of what goes into the final agreement and, if need be, the no fault divorce package.

2. Certification/Training and Background: My clients benefit from my experience and knowledge. I have a law degree from Concord Law School and a Master's degree in Negotiation and Dispute Resolution from Creighton University as well as basic and advanced mediation training from the Center for Mediation & Training in NYC and the New York City Bar Association.

3. Workshops/Training: I, also, have the ability to assist and provide conflict resolution programs to companies and organizations. I help facilitate workshops that are not "cookie-cutter, one size fits all", but are developed and implemented based on the needs, issues and ultimate goals of that company or organization. Valuable skills are learned that help reduce future conflict by understanding how to deal with potential conflict and by developing the ability to resolve the same.

4. Other Certifications: Certified by the John Maxwell team as a speaker, coach, and trainer.

Mediator/Litigation Paralegal

Company Name The Goodman Law Firm

Dates Employed Oct 2008 – Oct 2013

Employment Duration 5 yrs 1 mo

As a mediator and conflict resolution expert, I provide a pleasant and affordable alternative to costly court battles. This will save your sanity and resources, and protect your kids, if you have any. I will work with you and your spouse to design an agreement that you can both work with in the future. This will be an agreement that will guide your family into the future and will allow everyone involved to move on to a new stage in your lives. Typically, this agreement will cover your finances and, if you have children, your parenting plan and child support. I do not use legal, complicated language. This will be written clearly and collaboratively. After we prepare the agreement we can also fill in the forms that you will need to present to the court. If you wish, you may then choose to have an attorney and / or an accountant review these documents. Ultimately, the agreement and forms will be filed with the Clerk of the Court and your case will be set for a final hearing as an uncontested and agreed up on dissolution of marriage. You may also choose to further meet with me in order to work on the parenting coordination aspect of your separation. I offer parenting coordination sessions for currently divorcing or already divorced couples.
