AltCourt is designed to be a Legal Platform for the Legal Industry. The industry has not changed in over 200 years. The day-to-day operations of the legal industry are still run as if we are stuck in the 1800s. AltCourt's mission is to bring the Legal Industry into the 21st Century. AltCourt has created the first and only Legal Social B2B Networking Platform, which allows the Legal Industry to move forward at a rapid pace. Think of the network like a central highway, where all of your legal resources are located in one location. AltCourt enables you to network with another Attorney, a Legal Expert, a Court Reporter, a Judge, Schedule a Deposition, Schedule a Mediation, search for questions among the members for a specific legal question, refer clients to another attorney with a particular skill set, post a job, post a resume for a New Job Career, Finance a Lawsuit, Human Resource Outsourcing, Discounts on purchasing, and much more.

AltCourt has created the Central Platform for the Legal and Blockchain Community.

AltCourt Legal understands the value of Artificial Intelligence in Smart Contracts for Law and is building an AI Smart Contract Review Algorithm

In the New World of Blockchain Technology there will be many new legal problems, including regulatory and contractual issues. AltCourt sees the need to develop technology that will help solve many these challenges.

Developing "smart contracts and Distributed Ledger's", and translating them into "smart code" implementing smart contractual" provisions, creates the potential for mistakes to be made while coding. AltCourt Legal sees where incorporating Artificial Intelligence into the code writing process or review of an existing smart contract can reduce the possibility of costly mistakes. AltCourt is working with Artificial Intelligence engineers to develop the first Artificial Intelligence Algorithm to assist the Blockchain Community in the development and writing of their "Smart contracts".

Recently the Global Legal Blockchain Consortium reported that AltCourt is the only platform that allows the Blockchain Community and the Legal Community to come to one central place and collaborate on all legal issues.

The AI-based inspection powers the analysis necessary both to create and execute ~~such~~ complex smart contracts and make them more effective. The more data AI has, the better it can predict outcomes.

Thus, in contract negotiation, AI can analyze past negotiations to see how parties negotiated in the past and suggest the types of language and clauses most likely to secure agreement. AI can also analyze past contracts to identify variables not previously considered, and incorporate them into future contracts.

Because the smart contract functions as a self-executing document that guides workflow, AI can also use previous smart contracts to analyze the effectiveness of past workflows and identify potential improvements for future implementation.

Finally, with AI, the ability to track component parts of a transaction are not lost in a holistic muddle. On the contrary, it is enhanced. Siloing of information is greatly reduced while the ability to analyze transactions—holistically or in their component parts—for increased efficiencies is greatly enhanced.

Takeaways:

Smart contracts have already changed the face of traditional contracts. They have eliminated the human verification that ensures that all terms have been fulfilled into an automation tool that implements the terms of the agreement with little human intervention.

Adding AI to the existing capabilities of blockchain-enabled smart contracts exponentially increases their efficiency. AI and blockchain working in tandem provides deeper analysis of the effectiveness of both the contract terms and the workflows it monitors while further reducing the need for human verification, intervention or analysis.

Together, AI and blockchain simplify the negotiation and execution processes, while simultaneously facilitating more complex agreements that can ultimately lead to greater efficiencies. This integral partnership launches the field of contracts into an entirely new world for which both businesses and legal professionals must be prepared.

AltCourt is working on new technology that will revolutionize the Legal Industry. We are working with engineers to develop the first working Artificial Intelligence (AI) Judge. The initial use of the AI will be to assist our Arbitrators in coming to a reasonable result and outcome on difficult legal cases.

AltCourt is working with our software engineers to develop the first and only Uberized scheduling app for the Legal community. This app will allow anyone needing to schedule a Court Reporter, Mediator, Legal Expert, Process Server, etc. to be able to use their Android device or iPhone to schedule and pay for these services at the touch of a finger.

AltCourt is also involved in Philanthropy. AltCourt sets aside 5% of its profits for the Pro-Bono Legal Defense Fund. We have also set up the AltCourt Legal Charitable Foundation to support the needs of the members of the AltCourt Network. AltCourt sets aside another 5% of our profits to be used for the foundation. The charitable organization can be found on the AltCourt network site, and members can submit their charities to be listed on the platform. The members can support the charities directly.

AltCourt revenue is primarily generated from two areas: 20% commissions for services offered on the AltCourt platform and 20% fees from the AltCourt advertising co-op program.

All of these services will utilize the AltCourt Gold Token (LEGL) to seamlessly facilitate transactions within the platform.

15. Prepaid Legal Services

AltCourt Prepaid Legal Covered Services

AltCourt's most common group legal plan provides a number of core legal benefits that are covered at no charge. Below is a brief list of the services provided in the Legal Plan.

- Unlimited Telephone Consultation & Advice

Unlimited Telephone Consultation & Advice

Legal issues can be very unsettling for the average employee. This hard-working person isn't familiar with all of the procedures and legal language that are part of so many disputes, and is understandably frightened.

AltCourt Pre-Paid Legal Services has worked with employers since 2005 to design group legal plans with the individual's in mind. We firmly believe that anyone who is a member of an employee paid benefits plan has the right to expect a little something extra. We see to it that members have a chance to take advantage of some really important legal services.

Typical Prepaid Legal Costs $25-$39 per month.
AltCourt will charge $9.99 per month.

Perhaps one of the most useful group legal benefits of our Personal Legal Safeguard Plan is the direct access to Unlimited Telephone Consultation and Advice from our network of top-tier attorneys. This is something that many people take advantage of as part of the employee paid benefits their company offers to cover the need for legal services. This is intentionally made as simple as possible. As a group legal plan member, any employee has the right to call any of our plan attorneys as often as needed for advice on legal problems. Our members require legal consultation and advice for countless issues, and our lawyers commonly advise clients who:

- Are buying homes and need documents reviewed and an attorney present at closing;
- Are deeply in debt and need advice on bankruptcy and other related issues;
- Are experiencing leaks or other problems with a newly installed roof or windows;
- Need updates to outdated wills;
- Are leasing apartments or cars and need a lawyer to review the lease;
- Are considering writing a will;
- Have minor children and are trying to decide if they should start a trust;
- Are the executors of an estate;
- Are separated and unsure of parental rights;
- Are unable to make mortgage payments and are facing foreclosure;
- Have been the victims of identity theft;
- Have been in auto accidents or gotten speeding tickets;
- Are having to deal with immigration issues and more

Legal professionals will respond quickly and it doesn't matter whether the issue is routine or serious. The attorneys who are part of an employee paid benefits plan designed by AltCourt are expected to show the same level of courtesy and expertise. These lawyers are screened for their knowledge, but their interpersonal communication skills are just as important to us. Management can expect that their valued employees will be treated as adults and not as some case file to be stored in a cabinet. Human resources can be assured that an AltCourt employee paid benefits plan is very easy to administer.

We take great pride in the service the attorneys provide. Traffic violations, child support, visitation rights and other issues can often be resolved just by making a call to one of the lawyers in the AltCourt network. If an employee needs further assistance, it is not a challenge for us at all. Additional help can be provided at reduced rate hours, scheduled fees, or fixed prices for comprehensive legal representation. These can be part of any group legal plan, and we would be more than happy to work with an employer to develop just the right legal service for employees.

Employees should not have to be stressed out over minor legal matters. AltCourt works with some of the best and brightest legal minds in the country, who can offer help with even the most complicated family or personal legal matters. All of the services come with a compassionate understanding of the anxiety an individual is experiencing. We encourage human resources directors and executive management to give us a call to find out about the AltCourt group legal plans.

4 The AltCourt Token Sale

4.1 AltCourt Gold Tokens (LEGL)

AltCourt Gold tokens (LEGL) are ERC20-standardized tokens used to power the AltCourt platform. Users can use LEGL tokens to pay for products and services within the AltCourt platform.

4.2 AltCourt Gold Token Sale Objectives

The purpose of the AltCourt Gold Token (LEGL) Sale is to distribute LEGL tokens to the market. We seek to obtain the necessary funding to drive the continuous development of the platform as well as maintain standard business functions. By contributing to the token sale, contributors are procuring coins that can be used on our network and should not be doing so with an expectation of profit. Coin value may change at any time based on naturally assessed market value and has no intrinsic worth besides its use on the AltCourt platform. As the user/member base grows with AltCourt, the limited amount of Legl Tokens may increase in value based on the limited availability of tokens to the new members. AltCourt plans to be listed on several exchanges so that our members can convert their Legl Tokens back to whatever currency they choose to trade in.

AltCourt Gold tokens are ERC-20 compliant tokens based on the Ethereum blockchain.
